

CONDUCT, STANDARDS & APPEARANCE

The conduct of student personnel and their customs and courtesies must equal the prescribed standards set forth by the Seven Army Values and appropriate regulations. Students must display courtesy, bearing, and project an appearance, which will bring credit to the service, and a sense of accomplishment and personal pride in themselves.

High standards of conduct are basic to a good leader. The student's off-duty conduct reflects on their training and respect for their chosen profession. Students are representatives of the NCO Academy and are expected to conduct themselves accordingly.

Each student must strive to acquire and maintain the high personal and professional standards that are indicative of all Noncommissioned Officers. Hair and uniform standards must be IAW AR 670-1. All items of clothing and equipment must be serviceable and clean.

Duty Uniform will be BDU with all patches worn in accordance with (IAW) AR 670-1, organizational headgear, combat or speed lace combat boots, jungle boots, or jump boots. Tanker boots and the Hi Tech boots will not be authorized for wear at anytime during the course. Matterhorns, Danners, Herman Survivors, are authorized for wear during field training. Students should bring one set of BDUs for Combatives training, this uniform may be sterile of all patches.

Uniform for physical training will be the New PFU. The only authorized printing on the uniform is the word "ARMY" on the chest of the jacket and T-shirt. Students authorized to wear the Army Physical Fitness Excellence Patch will wear it IAW AR 670-1. Calf height or below calf height (ankle socks) are authorized to wear with the new PFU. Serviceable running shoes will be worn.

Class A Uniform will be the organizational uniform worn at home station. The Army Gray Green Shirt will be worn, short or long sleeve shirt will be based on the student decision. Dress Green / Dress Blue Uniform will be worn at the dining out. Insure you bring low quarters, white shirt and bow tie.